(57) Abstract :
 ABSTRACT This invention belongs to the field of Computer Science and Management. Its utility is to implement cyber security & institutional strategies incorporating principles of Management. Implementing a robust cybersecurity and institutional strategy that incorporates principles of management is critical for protecting an organization's digital assets and ensuring its long-term success. By following this systematic approach, organizations can create a strong cybersecurity and institutional strategy that aligns with management principles and is adaptable to evolving cyber threats. Regularly reviewing and updating the strategy is crucial to staying resilient in the face of emerging cybersecurity challenges.
